

WARSAW

9 – 10 MAY

2024

"Nothing Can Defeat the Idea of Nationality" Disputes and Cooperation in the Polish–Ukrainian Intellectual Dialogue in 1831-1918

Mioszowski
Centre

International Conference

DAY 1

9 MAY

Thursday

9.30–9.40

Welcome address
Ernest Wyciszkiewicz
Director of the Mieroszewski Centre

9.40–11.20

Panel I
Poland, the Ukrainian Question and the Cossack Myth

Moderator
Łukasz Adamski
The Mieroszewski Centre

Joanna Nowak
Institute of Slavic Studies, Polish Academy of Sciences
"Potential" or "Imaginary" Nation: Models and Strategies of Poles Towards Ukrainians in the Romantic Era

Tomasz Hen-Konarski
Institute of History, Polish Academy of Sciences
Three Cossack Myths of Nineteenth-Century Ukraine

Marek Wojnar
Institute of Political Studies, Polish Academy of Sciences
Between Cooperation and Rivalry: the Place of Poland in Ukrainian Geopolitical and Geographical Reflection in 1831-1914

11.20–11.50

Coffee break

11.50–13.30

Panel II
Poland and Ukraine: Cases of Cooperation

Moderator
Jagoda Wierzejska
University of Warsaw

Katarzyna Wrześcińska
Institute of Slavic Studies, Polish Academy of Sciences
Poles and Ukrainians in the Context of the Russian Threat.
Polish Perception of the Problem at the Turn of the 19th and 20th centuries

Anrdiy Zayarniuk
University of Winnipeg
Modern City as a Place of Cooperation: Internationalism and the Beginnings of Social-Democratic Movement in Lviv

Łukasz Adamski
The Mieroszewski Centre
Polish-Ruthenian/Ukrainian Dialogue as Exchange of Political Arguments (second half of the 19th century)

Wiktor Węglewicz
Institute of History, Polish Academy of Sciences
"Dziennik Kijowski" as a Place of Polish-Ukrainian Intellectual Dialogue in the Early 20th century.

13.50–14.50

Lunch

14.50–16.50

Panel III

"In Fire and Storm". War and Revolution

Moderator

Gennadii Korolov

The Mieroszewski Centre

Elżbieta Kwiecińska

University of Warsaw

The Concept of "Civilising Mission" in Poland and Ukraine

Börries Kuzmany

University of Vienna

The Minority Ministries for Poles, Jews and Russians in the Ukrainian People's Republic and their Efforts to Establish Non-Territorial Autonomy

Guido Hausmann

Leibniz-Institut für Ost- und Südosteuropaforschung IOS, Regensburg

Brest-Litovsk Conference in 1918 and the Polish-Ukrainian Territorial Antagonism

Mariusz Korzeniowski

Maria Curie-Skłodowska University

Edward Paszkowski on the "Ukrainian Turmoil" of 1917-1918

17.00–19.30

Dinner

9.30–11.00

Panel IV
Ukraine and Anti-Imperial Rhetoric

Moderator

Aleksander Łaniewski

Institute of History, Polish Academy of Sciences

Marek Kornat

Institute of History, Polish Academy of Sciences

The Ukrainian Question in the Concepts of Adam J. Czartoryski

Iryna Orlevych

Institute of Ukrainian Studies, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Lviv Museum of the History of Religion"Ukraine" and "Ukrainian" in Interpretation of the Russophile Political Current in Eastern Galicia (19th century – early 20th century)

Gennadii Korolov

The Mieroszewski Centre"Ireland of the East?" The Case of Anti-Colonial Rhetoric in the Ukrainian National Movement in the "long 19th century"

11.00–11.30

Coffee break

11.30–13.00

Panel V
Myths and Academic Knowledge

Moderator

Oleksandr Avramchuk

Catholic University of Lublin

Maciej Górny

*Institute of History, Polish Academy of Sciences*The Beast, the "Veshatel" and Women. Public Morality and Irredentism in the 1860s

Martin Rohde

*University of Vienna*Shevchenko Scientific Society. Self-Knowledge and Frontier Science in Ukrainian-Polish (Non-) Dialogue

Marcin Jędrysiak

*University of Wrocław / Centre for Eastern Studies*How Does a Ukrainian Look Like? The Anthropological Type of Ukrainian as an Attempt to Distinguish it from Neighbouring Peoples (1858-1917)

13.00–14.00

Lunch

14.00–14.30

Presentations

Guido Hausmann

Leibniz-Institut für Ost- und Südosteuropaforschung IOS, Regensburg

Presentation of the Centre for Interdisciplinary Research on Ukraine – Think-Space Ukraine (TSU) at the University of Regensburg

Łukasz Adamski

The Mieroszewski Centre

Presentation of the album "Fighting the Russian Empire in Artur Grottger's Drawings" and the AREI. Journal for Central and Eastern European Politics

14.30–16.30

Panel VI

Eastern Galicia: Rivalry and Cooperation Between Poles and Ukrainians

Moderator

Magdalena Baran-Szołtys

University of Vienna

Oleh Pavlyshyn

University of Lviv

The Count Jan Szeptycki (1836-1912) in the Context of Polish-Ukrainian Cultural Dialogue in Galicia at the Turn of the 20th century.

Magdalena Nowak

University of Gdańsk

The Role of Metropolitan Andrei Sheptycky in Shaping of the Polish-Ukrainian Relations at the Turn of the 20th Century

Ivanna Cherchovych

Center for Urban History in Lviv, Ethnology Institute of the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine

[In] Between Feminism and Nationalism: To the History of Ukrainian and Polish Women's Movements in fin de siècle Habsburg Galicia

Jagoda Wierzejska

University of Warsaw

Brotherhood in Enmity. Józef Wittling's Pacifism in the Context of the Polish-Ukrainian War over Former Eastern Galicia

16.30–17.00

Closing discussion and remarks

THE MIEROSZEWSKI CENTRE IS A STATE INSTITUTION ESTABLISHED BY THE ACT OF THE POLISH PARLIMENT AND SUPERVISED BY THE MINISTRY OF CULTURE AND NATIONAL HERITAGE OF THE REPUBLIC OF POLAND.

THE MISSION OF THE MIEROSZEWSKI CENTRE IS TO INITIATE, SUPPORT AND CARRY OUT ACTIVITIES AIMED AT THE PEOPLES OF EASTERN EUROPE.

Mieroszewski Centre

PLACE:
ZIELNA CENTRE
EUROPA ROOM, 6TH FLOOR
37 ZIELNA STREET
WARSAW

MIEROSZEWSKI.PL
FACEBOOK | INSTAGRAM | X | YOUTUBE
@MIEROSZEWSKIPL

